

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear ANA Members,

We are counting the days—there are just 29—until the ANA2024 begins! The meeting will be held September 14 – 17, 2024, in Orlando. This year's meeting will include outstanding educational content, networking opportunities, the celebrated poster sessions, the latest in research and discovery, and an opportunity to connect with colleagues and friends. Register today and join us in Orlando!

Compelling Education Programming

ANA2024 will include six plenary sessions providing insight and information on several topics. In addition, ANA2024 will include Special Interest Groups (SIGs), cross-cutting SIGs, interactive lunch workshops, professional development workshops, satellite symposia, and much more!

The Presidential Symposium

I invite you to join me at the ANA2024 Presidential Symposium: Present and Future Applications of AI in Neurological Care and Research. Dr. Cassie Mitchell will co-chair this session with me as we hear perspectives on current capabilities and future promise of computational tools for the application of implantable devices and the integration of multi-omics, imaging, and clinical data toward understanding the causes, prognosis and treatment of neurological disease.

Derek Denny-Brown Young Neurological Scholar Symposium

The Derek Denny-Brown Young Neurological Scholar Symposium is an opportunity for researchers to share groundbreaking research in the field of neurology and neuroscience. This symposium will feature presentations from the 2024 Derek Denny-

Brown awardees, and the recipients of the Grass Foundation-ANA Award in Neuroscience, Audrey S. Penn Lectureship and Wolfe Research Prize awardees.

Executive Session of Membership

Another important feature of the ANA Annual Meeting is the Executive Session of Membership meeting that will be held Monday, September 16, 2024, from 10:45 – 11:45 AM EDT. This meeting is your opportunity as an ANA member to get the inside info about association activities, to elect officers for service on the board of directors, and to conduct association business. I would like to congratulate the following on being nominated to serve on the ANA Board of Directors:

- Dr. Elisabeth Breese Marsh, Johns Hopkins University | Vice President
- Dr. Clifford Saper, Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center | Treasurer (second term)
- Dr. Merit Cudcowicz, Massachusetts General Hospital | Director
- Dr. Claire Henchcliffe, University of California, Irvine | Director
- Dr. Jin-Moo Lee, Washington University School of Medicine | Director
- Dr. Wilfreda Lindsey, Kennedy Krieger Institute | Ex Officio

We look forward to welcoming these new board members who are volunteering their time, energy, expertise, and knowledge to help us in our mission of advancing science, education, and careers to improve neurologic health for all.

Poster Sessions

We are excited to bring you our celebrated poster sessions at ANA2024. Please join us for poster viewing and for the poster receptions planned throughout the meeting. Poster viewing hours on Sunday begin at noon. There will be a reception on Sunday evening from 5:30 – 7:00 PM. On Monday, poster viewing starts at noon, and a reception will be held from 6 – 7:30 PM. Come and hear about cutting edge research and discovery from our poster presenters. We will also have exhibitors situated in the Poster Hall enabling you to engage with industry partners who support the ANA.

Social and Networking Events

At the ANA, we know the power of connection. We hope you will join us for the opening reception on Saturday, September 14, from 5 – 5:45 PM. We thank the Association of University Professors of Neurology (AUPN) for co-hosting this event with us. I encourage you to also visit the Poster Hall to enjoy engaging with poster presenters and exhibitors.

President's Reception

Everyone attending ANA2024 is invited to join me for the 2024 President's Reception on Monday evening, September 16, at 7:30 PM. This annual event is designed to celebrate the ANA, our members, the latest research and discovery, and to foster relationships and build community.

I look forward to seeing you in Orlando for the ANA Annual Meeting next month!

Sincerely,

M. Elizabeth Ross

HEAL * NATIONAL K12 CLINICAL PAIN CAREER DEVELOPMENT AWARD

The Chronic Pain and Fatigue Research Center at the University of Michigan is requesting applications for the HEAL* National K12 Clinical Pain Career Development Award (HEAL K12).

The HEAL K12 is a mentored career development program designed to provide protected time for clinicians and scientists to focus on training in and conducting clinical pain research. Award provides up to $100,000/year in salary plus fringe benefits, and $50,000/year in research support costs, for up to 3 years.

An informational webinar will be held September 11th from 11AM-12PM EDT, register here. Additional program information can be found here. For questions regarding the LOI, submission process, or program requirements, or to request a pre-submission consultation, please email UM-HEALK12@umich.edu.

An important feature of the ANA Annual Meeting is the Executive Session of Membership meeting that will be held Monday, September 16, 2024, from 10:45 – 11:45 AM EDT. This meeting is the opportunity for ANA members to be informed about association activities, elect officers to serve on the board of directors, and to conduct association business. We hope you will join us for this important meeting.

RESEARCH CAREERS REIMAGINED COURSE WILL BE OFFERED AT ANA2024

The Research Careers Reimagined \(RCR\) Course will be offered in conjunction with ANA2024 on Saturday, September 14, 2024, from 8:00 AM - 4:05 PM EDT. The RCR Course explores a variety of funding pathways for researchers in neurology including traditional funding mechanisms from NIH to pharma. The impact of new technologies such as artificial intelligence, machine learning, and communication through social media affecting academic publications will also be discussed.

The RCR Course is open to Instructors, Assistant Professors, Trainees, Residents, and Postdoc Fellows only. Click here for registration details and more information.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS | SEPTEMBER 14, 2024

WILEY

The RCR Course begins at 8:00 AM EDT and will end at 4:05 PM EDT. There is a reception from 5 - 5:45 PM EDT for RCR Course attendees for additional networking. The RCR Course includes the following presentations:

- Early Strategies for Establishing Commitment to Research in Your Career
- Perspective: Research Careers Reimagined, Updated for 2024
- Accessing NIH Funding to Advance Treatments for Neurological Disorders
- Flexibility and Mentoring in Early Career Research: Navigating Promotion Pathways and Doing What You Enjoy Most
- Starting and Developing a Successful Career as a Clinical Trialist: Art and Science Behind Investigator-and Industry-Initiated Studies
- Life and Investigation in Industry
- Seeing the Big Picture: From Seeking Your First Job to Becoming a Leader in Academic Neurology
- CTSIs and Resources to Support Clinical and Transitional Research
- Global Neurology Research Careers in Academic Medicine
- Ask the Editor-in-Chief! Answers and Advice on Publishing
- Generative Artificial Intelligence (AI) in Research, Scientific Writing and Academic Publishing
- Getting Your Publications, Projects and Collaborations Out There: Style Points
