

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear ANA Members,

June is Pride Month, a time that we recognize and celebrate individuals from the LGBTQIA+ Community and the contributions they make to academic neurology, medicine, and science. The ANA hosted a roundtable discussion with members from the LGBTQIA+ Community to learn more about their challenges and successes. We invite you to listen to the conversation to learn more about their personal experiences. We are grateful for the diversity among ANA members and are proud to be home to many from the LGBTQIA+ Community.

Another way in which the ANA is celebrating diversity is through the development and launch of a speaker database. The database is designed for ANA members only, so you will need to be logged in to access it. The icon for the Speaker Directory is on the Member Center page. Individuals have provided their information allowing you to identify individuals who might speak or present on a topic in which they have expertise. The database information includes information to help identify individuals who are underrepresented in medicine (URiM) and who identify as women. We invite you to visit the speaker database if you are in need of a presenter. Please note that all ANA members are welcome to opt in and be included in the database by completing the online form here.

There are so many wonderful speakers and presenters in the Association, and we'll hear from many of you at ANA2024. We hope all our members will come to the September 14 – 17, 2024, 149th Annual Meeting of the ANA in Orlando for the latest in translational neuroscience and to build your toolbox toward career advancement in academic neurology. Here are some of the professional development sessions that will be offered:

- Integrating Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in Neurology Residency Selection
- View from the NINDS, NIA, DOD, and VA
- Communicating Your Science: How to Promote Your Science to Scientists and

Non-Scientists

- Early Career Development for International Graduates: Challenges and Opportunities
- Multitasking for the Neurology Chair: Balancing Multiple Priorities
- Realistic Research in Residency
- Building Your Career in Global Neurology
- Landing the Career Track You Want and Career Transitions
- Navigating Fellowships
- Navigating Neurotherapeutic Horizons: Managing the Practical Aspects of the Novel Alzheimer's Therapeutics

If you have not already done so, do register today and make plans to attend ANA2024. As an additional benefit for meeting attendees this year we are excited to offer complimentary childcare services for those traveling with children. Please contact ANA Chief Program Officer Dr. Nadine Goldberg to get information and secure childcare services at ANA2024. Childcare services must be reserved on or before August 7, 2024.

I am grateful to Dr. Allison Willis, Annual Meeting Programming (AMP) Committee Chair, and the entire AMP Committee for their efforts and planning to make ANA2024 the best annual meeting yet. Don't miss the ANA's Annual Executive Session of Membership meeting on Monday, September 16, 2024, from 10:45 – 11:45 AM EDT at the Hilton Orlando in Orlando IV-VI Ballroom. You will hear an update of the candidate slate for board service and important updates on Association activities from our President, Treasurer, Secretary, and Editors-In-Chief.

★ The Hilton Orlando Convention Hotel
Saturday, September 14, 2024 | 7:00am – 5:45pm ET held in conjunction with the ANA Annual Meeting

★ Educational Sessions Geared Towards:
Chairs (new & experienced), Program Directors,
Clerkship Directors, VA Chiefs & Women Leaders ★

For those of you who are also members of the Association of University Professors of Neurology (AUPN), we are pleased to share that the AUPN is hosting its Annual Meeting on Saturday, September 14, in Orlando. The AUPN Annual Meeting is the ideal platform to collaborate, discuss challenges, and network with peers. You may

2024 CALL FOR Committee Service

Deadline to apply: June 30, 2024

Your participation on an ANA committee would be a great way to enhance your leadership skills and engage with the ANA, and you are invited to complete the Call for Committee Service form on or before June 30, 2024. ANA committee work helps advance our mission and vision. ANA committee service is a perfect way to connect with the community of academic neurology and allied sciences, and give back while also receiving experience, and expand your network, knowledge, and expertise.

Thanks for being part of the ANA, and I hope to see you at ANA2024.

Sincerely,

M. Elizabeth Ross, MD, PhD, FANA
President, ANA
Nathan Cummings Professor and
Head, Laboratory of Neurogenetics and Development
Director, Center for Neurogenetics
Weill Cornell Medicine

Do you feel your ANA membership is worth the investment you make? Why or why not?

RESEARCH CAREERS REIMAGINED COURSE WILL BE OFFERED AT ANA2024

The Research Careers Reimagined \(RCR\) Course will be offered in conjunction with ANA2024 on Saturday, September 14, 2024, from 8:00 AM - 4:05 PM EDT. The RCR Course explores a variety of funding pathways for researchers in neurology including traditional funding mechanisms from NIH to pharma. The impact of new technologies such as artificial intelligence, machine learning, and communication through social media affecting academic publications will also be discussed.

The RCR Course is open to Instructors, Assistant Professors, Trainees, Residents, and Postdoc Fellows only. Click here for registration details and more information.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS | SEPTEMBER 14, 2024

WILEY

The RCR Course begins at 8:00 AM EDT and will end at 4:05 PM EDT. There is a reception from 5 - 5:45 PM EDT for RCR Course attendees for additional networking. The RCR Course includes the following presentations:

- Early Strategies for Establishing Commitment to Research in Your Career
- Perspective: Research Careers Reimagined, Updated for 2024
- Accessing NIH Funding to Advance Treatments for Neurological Disorders
- Flexibility and Mentoring in Early Career Research: Navigating Promotion Pathways and Doing What You Enjoy Most
- Starting and Developing a Successful Career as a Clinical Trialist: Art and Science Behind Investigator-and Industry-Initiated Studies
- Life and Investigation in Industry
- Seeing the Big Picture: From Seeking Your First Job to Becoming a Leader in Academic Neurology
- CTSIs and Resources to Support Clinical and Transitional Research
- Global Neurology Research Careers in Academic Medicine
- Ask the Editor-in-Chief! Answers and Advice on Publishing
- Generative Artificial Intelligence (AI) in Research, Scientific Writing and Academic Publishing
- Getting Your Publications, Projects and Collaborations Out There: Style Points

interactive patient case webinar series

ANA interACTN LIVE PATIENT CASE WEBINAR SERIES

Episode 2 | June 28, 2024 | 1 - 2 PM EDT

We invite you to join us for the second webinar in our new online interACTN Live patient case webinar series, the American Neurological Association's (ANA) new one-hour case-based, FREE live webinar series featuring authors from accepted interACTN case study submissions. Cases will be presented during the webinar, and attendees will then be asked to weigh in on the diagnosis. This is a pilot program of the ANA, and we invite you to participate. Your feedback will help us determine the best way to offer this in the future.

During this webinar, Neena R. Cherayil, MD, will present the case of a 72-year old man with unilateral eye and jaw pain with a history of rheumatoid arthritis. Join the webinar to hear the entire case presentation, and see if you can diagnose this case accurately. The presentation will include the diagnosis and a time for questions and answers. Register today, and be part of this new program offered by the ANA!

ANA INVESTIGATES MINIMALLY INVASIVE NEUROSURGERIES FOR SPONTANEOUS INTRACEREBRAL HEMORRHAGE

Stay tuned next week when the ANA will release the June ANA Investigates episode on Minimally Invasive Neurosurgeries for Spontaneous Intracerebral Hemorrhage. The recently published ENRICH trial is the first to show that minimally invasive neurosurgery may improve functional outcomes for patients with hemorrhagic stroke. The study's lead author Dr. Gustavo Pradilla will talk about the differences between ENRICH and previous negative trials, and future neurosurgical approaches for spontaneous intracerebral hemorrhage. This podcast should be available on June 25.

ANNALS OF NEUROLOGY OFFERS ONE GUARANTEED EXTERNAL REVIEW FOR ANA FELLOWS EACH CALENDAR YEAR

Annals of Neurology is one of the most prestigious medical publications in the world, publishing high-impact clinical and basic research in neurology and neuroscience. With an Impact Factor of 11.274, Annals has a long history of a commitment to outstanding neuroscience and is recognized by and among leaders in the field.

Did you know ANA Fellow members get one guaranteed external review per calendar year? In addition, Fellow members of the ANA are guaranteed an external review of one manuscript per year submitted to Annals. Be sure your membership is current to take advantage of this member benefit. If you are the first, senior, or corresponding author on a manuscript submitted to Annals, you will be asked whether you would like the submitted paper to receive a guaranteed review. Learn more about this benefit here.
